Free Landscape Irrigation Class

The Tahoe Resource Conservation District in partnership with the North Tahoe Public Utility District is hosting the final FREE outdoor water conservation class of the summer on Wednesday, August 5 from 5:30 – 7:30 PM at the North Tahoe Event Center. The classes are great opportunities to learn smart techniques and technology to conserve water while beautifying your landscape. Whether you're a landscaper, landscape manager or do-it-yourself gardener these trainings will present the knowledge you need to stay ahead of the drought.

Understanding & Implementing Drip (Micro) Irrigation – August 5, 5:30pm – 7:30pm

North Tahoe Event Center, 8318 N Lake Blvd, Kings Beach.

Do you or have you wanted to use drip irrigation, otherwise known as "micro-irrigation," on your property? Want to learn techniques to save you money and time while supporting a healthy landscape during drought and watering restrictions?

The drought impacts everyone so all are welcome regardless of your water purveyor. RSVP is requested. Please contact Jennifer Cressy at jcressy@tahoercd.org or 530-543-1501 ext.107

The Tahoe RCD's mission is to promote the conservation, stewardship, and education of the Lake Tahoe region's natural resources by providing leadership and innovative environmental services. The Tahoe RCD is a non-regulatory, grant funded, public agency that works with a variety of partner agencies to implement projects, programs and outreach.

The North Tahoe Public Utility District provides sewer and water service to the residents of Kings Beach, Tahoe Vista, Carnelian Bay, Cedar Flat and Agate Bay. The North Tahoe Regional Park, Tahoe Vista Recreation Area and Boat Launch and North Tahoe Event Center are owned and operated by the District and provide recreation opportunities to residents and visitors.
